

PLAYCARDS FOR MANAGEMENT OF THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

This section contains 13 PlayCards

4a

81) Modify the learning environment to support instruction. (example 1)

82) Modify the learning environment to support instruction. (example 2)

83) Modify classroom environment to enhance visual input.

84) Modify classroom environment to facilitate teacher movement.

85) Use positioning to enhance monitoring and communication.

86) Structure student movement in the classroom.

87) Encourage usage of reference materials available in the environment.

88) Ensure that students are adequately provisioned for instruction.

89) Ensure that the classroom is adequately provisioned for instruction.

90) Monitor student responses and modify instruction as needed.

91) Monitor and adjust the environment to facilitate student learning.

92) Modify materials to improve effectiveness of groupwork.

93) Modify materials to provide more effective input to students during instruction.

Management of the Learning Environment

4a

Accounting for the perspectives of teachers and students during instruction by modifying elements of the classroom environment. Elements may include but are not limited to:

- type and quality of input provided to students
- materials and resources available to students and teachers
- physical factors such as student placement, lighting, sound, temperature, etc.